525 MILES
OF THE
UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD
Running West from Omaha
ACROSS THE CONTINENT,
ARE NOW COMPLETED.

THIS BRINGS THE LINE TO THE EASTERN BASE of the Rocky Mountains, and it is expected that the track will be laid thirty miles further, to Evans Pass, the highest point on the road, by January. The maximum grade from the foot of the mountains to the summit is but eighty feet to the mile, while that of many eastern roads is over one hundred. Work in the rock-cuttings on the western slope will continue through the winter, and there is now no reason to doubt that the entire grand line to the Pacific will be open for business in 1870.

The means provided for the construction of this Great National Work are ample. The United States grants its Six Per Cent. Bonds at the rate of from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, for which it takes a second lien as security, and receives payment to a large if not to the full extent of its claim in services. These bonds are issued as each twenty mile section is finished, and after it has been examined by the United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first class road, thoroughly supplied with depots, repair shops, stations and all the necessary rolling stock and other equipments.

The United States also makes a donation of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, which will be a source of large revenue to the Company. Much of this land in the Platte Valley is among the most fertile in the world, and other large portions are covered with heavy pine forests and abound in coal of the best quality.

The Company is also authorized to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to an amount equal to the issue of the Government and no more. Hon. E. D. Morgan and Hon. Oakes Ames are Trustees for the Bondholders, and deliver the bonds to the Company only as the work progresses, so that they always represent an actual and productive value.

The authorized capital of the Company is One Hundred Million Dollars, of which over five millions have been paid in upon the work already done.

EARNINGS OF THE COMPANY.

At present, the profits of the Company are derived only from its local traffic, but this is already much more than sufficient to pay the interest on all the Bonds the Company can issue, if not another mile were built. It is not doubted that when the road is completed the through traffic of the only line connecting the Atlantic and Pacific States will be large beyond precedent, and, as there will be no competition, it can always be done at profitable rates.

It will be noticed that the Union Pacific Railroad is, in fact, a Government Work, built under the supervision of Government officers, and to a large extent with Government money, and that its bonds are issued under Government direction. It is believed that no similar security is so carefully guarded and certainly no other is based upon a larger or more valuable property. As the Company's are offered for the present at 95 CENTS ON THE DOLLAR, IN U. S. CURRENCY, they are the cheapest security in the market, being more than 16 per cent. lower than U. S. Stocks. They pay

SIX PER CENT. IN GOLD,

or over NINE PER CENT. upon the investment. Subscriptions will be received in Portland by

A NEW PAMPHLET AND MAP showing the Progress of the Work, Resources for Construction, and Value of Bonds, may be obtained at the Company's Offices or of its advertised Agents, or will be sent free on application.

Democratic State Convention

PORTLAND, March 20, 9 A. M.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment.

O. Humason presented the report of the Committee on Resolutions, which was adopted and the Committee discharged.

THE RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That we pledge our adherence and unswerving fidelity to the time honored principles of the Democratic party.

Resolved, That the Federal Government is one of limited powers granted by the States in a written Constitution, which is the sole measure of its authority in war and in peace, and is alike law for ruler and people.

Resolved, That the Union, under the Constitution, is the only solid foundation of our strength and prosperity as a people, equally conducive to the welfare of the States both North and South.

Resolved, That the Constitution of the United States confers no power on Congress to legislate upon the internal affairs of the States, concerning this Union.

Resolved, That it is the highest duty of every American citizen to maintain against all their enemies the obligations of the Constitution and the integrity of the Union under it.

Resolved, That we are opposed to sharing with servile races the priceless political heritage achieved alone by white men, and by them transmitted to us, their posterity, as a sacred trust forever.

Resolved, That good faith and justice to all demands that the public debt shall be paid in like currency as contracted, and we favor action by Congress, submitting United States securities to be taxed as other property.

Resolved, That the burthens of taxation ought to be equal among the people, and should be upon the property, instead of upon the industry of the country, as by present laws provided.

Resolved, That we protest against the Reconstruction Acts of Congress as unwarranted by the Constitution and revolutionary in tendency and in positive violation of the faith of the General Government pledged to the people of the United States.

Resolved, That we utterly condemn the attempt of Congress to usurp the powers of the Executive and Judicial Department of the Government as a flagrant outrage upon the Constitution and liberties of the people.

Resolved, That we sympathise with the Irish people in their efforts to secure to themselves civil liberty.

Resolved, That it is the duty of the Federal Government to extend protection alike to all native and naturalized citizens both at home and abroad.

Resolved, That we are in favor of a judicious system of railroad improvement in Oregon to develop our vast resources, and for this purpose Congress should make liberal grants of aid.

The Convention then proceeded to the nomination of a candidate for Representative in Congress, which resulted in the unanimous choice of J. S. Smith, of Marion county.

On motion of Mr. Brown, a Committee, consisting of Messrs Hayden, Waymire and Slater was appointed to wait upon Mr. Smith to inform him of his nomination.

The Chairman then announced that the next business in order was to nominate three candidates for Presidential Electors. It was decided to choose one at a time, whereupon S. S. Chadwick was chosen by acclamation. John Whiteaker and John Burnett were put in nomination and the yeas and nays called, which resulted in the choice of Mr. Burnett—93 to 43. J. H. Slater, of Wasco, was unanimously elected as the third.

The Convention then chose by acclamation the following gentlemen as delegates to the National Democratic Convention: N. M. Bell, W. W. Page, O. Joynt, Beriah Brown and T. B. Prim.

On motion of Mr. Humason, the Convention then proceeded to the election of a Democratic State Central Committee, consisting of one from each county, as follows: Multnomah, J. C. Hawthorne; Marion, L. F. Grover; Linn, G. R. Helm; Benton, J. C. Avery; Baker, J. H. Shinn; Clackamas, A. F. Hedges; Umatilla, Samuel Johnson; Jackson, E. H. Shipley; Douglas, L. Lane; Polk, Ben. Hayden; Wasco, V. Trevitt; Clatsop, John Adair; Tillamook, Dr. Davis; Columbia, Geo. Knox; Coos, D. J. Low; Curry, — Jones; Union, E. S. McComas; Lane, John Whiteaker; Grant, I. Hare; Yamhill, W. T. Newby; Washington, W. G. Scroggins; Josephine, . Hon. L. F. Grover was chosen as Chairman of the Committee.

Mr. Hayden presented the following resolution:

Resolved, That our Delegates to the National Democratic Convention are hereby instructed to vote for G. H. Pendleton, as the first choice of the Democracy of Oregon, for President.

Mr. Hayden said that Pendleton could beat Gen. Grant, or any other man that was in favor of abolition rule and despotism.

Mr. Beriah Brown was opposed to the instruction of delegates, and said that he should consider it an infringement upon his honor and dignity as a Democrat—that it was not Democratic.

Mr. Jasper Johnson said: "My business, perhaps, enables me to see more of the people of my county than any other man in it, and I cannot say that Mr. Pendleton is the first choice of me, or of my people. Neither me or my people regard him as the best man in the United States for that position."

Mr. Hayden—Who are your people? [Prolonged laughter.]

Beriah Brown said that it was unusual, that he never had and never would serve as a delegate to any convention under instructions; that he would not allow himself to be put into leading strings, that it was an impeachment of his honor as a man.

Mr. Hayden—"We are ready to receive your resignation."

Mr. Humason—"You are not authorized to receive it. Does the whole Democratic party belong to you?"

Mr. Beriah Brown arose and said that he could not consent to go as a delegate to a convention under instructions, and therefore tendered his resignation, which was accepted.

J. C. Avery, of Benton county, was chosen to fill the vacancy.

The vote was then taken on Mr. Hayden's resolution, which was adopted.

The committee appointed to wait upon Mr. J. S. Smith, reported that Mr. Smith had accepted the nomination, whereupon Mr. Smith came forward and thanked the Convention in a few appropriate remarks.

The following District nominations were then announced: For Prosecuting Attorney in First Judicial District, W. G. T'Vault; Second District, L. F. Mosher for Judge, and Jas. Strahn for Prosecuting Attorney; Fourth District, W. F. Trimble for Judge, and J. H. Reed for Prosecuting Attorney; Fifth District, W. B. Laswell for Prosecuting Attorney.

It was resolved to hold the next Democratic Convention at Albany.

A vote of thanks was tendered the officers of the Convention and the city of Portland, when the Convention adjourned sine die.

THE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL SHERMAN.—A Tribune despatch from Washington, February 20th, says: Lieutenant General Sherman's letter to the President, suggesting the reasons why he would prefer to be excused from taking command of the new military department, with headquarters in this city, was, as stated in these despatches, dated on the 14th instant, and did not reach Mr. Johnson until yesterday, five days after date. The letter was unsealed, and came through Gen. Grant's headquarters, inclosed in a letter to the General. The President is annoyed that Gen. Sherman should have replied through Gen. Grant, instead of communicating directly with himself. Gen. Sherman's friends say on this point that, inasmuch as the order assigning him to the new department was issued through Gen. Grant, military etiquette and discipline required that he should reply through the same channel. Upon reading Gen. Sherman's letter, the President promptly telegraphed him, acknowledging its receipt, and saying substantially that, in view of the objections suggested, he would not assign him to the command, but would allow him to remain in Missouri. Lieut. Gen. Sherman replied by telegraph, thanking the President for relieving him from the effect of the order. Mr. Johnson thereupon directed a revocation of so much of the order as related to the assignment of Gen. Sherman. It is said that the President will assign another commander to the new district in a few days. Prominent Democrats are urging the President to appoint Gen. Halleck, who is known to be very objectionable to Gen. Grant and one of his bitterest opponents since the beginning of the war.

THE PRESS.—Daniel Webster, in a discussion on the influence of the press, spoke as follows: "Every parent whose son is away from home at school should supply him with a newspaper. I well remember what a marked difference there was between those of my schoolmates who had, and those who not access to newspapers. The first were always superior to the last in debate, composition and general intelligence."

Greeley and Grant

[From the Chicago Tribune.]

The resolutions of the New York Republican State Convention, Horace Greely being a member of the committee appointed to draft the same, instruct the delegates to vote as a unit, at Chicago, for Grant and Fenton, and to employ all honorable means to secure those nominations. Mr. Greeley "promised to do his part in the canvass, and, and urged all to work with a will."

We are not disposed to harsh judgment of any of our co-laborers, least of all to speak unkindly of the eminent philosopher of the New York Tribune. But we must be allowed to hope that Mr. Greeley will strive to repair the mischief done by his recent ungenerous and unjust course towards the nominee of the New York Republicans for President of the United States. The country contains no small number of men who put faith in the New York Tribune. With all these Mr. Greeley has worked mischief by a ceaseless iteration of doubts as to the soundness of General Grant's principles. If there is "danger of over confidence, and need to work with a will," as Mr. Greeley says, it is, to a large extent, because the New York Tribune has thrown the whole weight of its influence into the scale against Grant as a safe candidate for the loyal masses of the country. Let this wrong be repaired now, as speedily and thoroughly as possible.

Mr. Greely has all along seemed to us forgetful of the true aspect relatively to the question in hand, of certain facts in the position of General Grant. He has complained that we do not know, to a certainty, the principles of our great soldier. About this Mr. Greeley has not considered, it seems to us, two things of prime importance.

1. We do not require, nor do we want in a candidate for President, a man who means to put his "policy" above the laws of Congress. We do want a man whose prepossessions are on the side of liberty, as Mr. Lincoln's were, squarely and thoroughly in the interests of justice, pleading evermore for the "lifting of the burden from the shoulders of all men." Such a man is General Grant. From the day he wrote his Vicksburg letter to Mr. Washburne, in 1862, saying that the "North and South could never live at peace "save as one nation, and that without slavery," to the present time, there has been in his footsteps neither variableness nor shadow of turning. But, for the main thing, we want an honest President, who will see that the laws be faithfully executed. It is to Congress and to Congress alone, that we must look for the policy upon which our government shall be administered. If Congress fails to enact justice, no President can execute it. The two things on which the fate of the nation hangs are, a loyal national legislature, and a faithful executive.

2. The record which General Grant has made by his acts is unimpeachable. That he has not written letters, not even in response to much heady clamor for a declaration of his views is a great point in his favor. Words are the coin of the regular politician. It is evidence of the superior quality of General Grant's character that he scorns to talk, when talk is not part of action. We might not insist on this if the action of the General had not been unequivocal and uncompromising. But when all the world sees that our great soldier takes every pains to know what his duty under the laws is—as in the Stanton affair—and strenuousey does it, in that grand fashion of the bold fighter against all odds which has made his name beloved with the masses, it seems to us that Mr. Greeley, in calling for a statement of views from our candidate (and his candidate now), simply asked for chaff to be added to the brimming measure of wheat.

We are all of us apt to magnify our office. Mr. Greeley's office is to multiply words, and in this sphere of activity he has few rivals. General Grant's office consists of deeds, and here he is equally without a rival. Surely no one can misinterpret the succession of notable acts by which General Grant has frustrated, in great part, the malign intentions of Andrew Johnson. The New York Republican Convention seem to have had a full appreciation of their import, and, without doing any disparagement to Mr. Greeley's usefulness as a maker of phrases, they have put an end to his war against General Grant. Henceforth the Republican party will move in solid column on the enemy's works.

Grant and Andy.

[From the S. F. Chronicle.]

The Sacramento Union not long ago predicted that Andy Johnson would be the Democratic candidate for next President. At the time, we thought this highly improbable, but in the present position of things, Andy's chance does not look to us altogether desperate. Since Brick Pomeroy and General Howard, par nobile fratrum, have commenced bowling to have Hancock arrested and tried for the murder of Mrs. Surratt, we may safely count that "Federal Butcher" out of the ring, and it really looks as though no General who "gained his bloody laurels in Lincoln's wicked war," stood a living show. Vallandigham has been shelved, because he did not "aggravate the myrmidons who arrested him to run him through the bowels with their bayonets." Nasby is down on the great Ohio martyr because he didn't pursue this course, and die for the benefit of the party "with appropriat last words wich we might put on our banners and sich." As a dead martyr he might have made some political capital, but as a live martyr who has not been "run through the bowels" he is simply a nuisance. Seymour and Pendleton are so un-Democratic as to persist in making speeches, in good English, and in wearing clean shirt collars—which lets them out. Andy Johnson, not being liable to these objections, and having succeeded in getting himself impeached, now looms up as the probable Democratic candidate. It is true, that "little Mac" is probably in training for the contest, and as the "soothinist man to the Southern heart, wich ever wore blue," he may find some support. If he did "dror the sword agin the South," says Nasby, "he only drawed it figgeratively, he didn't do much harm." But the illustrious "Grave Digger" has been tried once, and the Democracy have a natural reluctance to make a second fight under a defeated candidate. Besides, Andy has the personal control of the Federal patronage, and that circumstance gives him a vast deal of strength. In short, from present appearances, Andy's chances for the Democratic nomination seem tolerably fair. On the other side, it is almost certain that Grant will be the candidate. Thus it seems highly probable that we shall have the first soldier of the war and the man who has fought like a tiger to undo all that was achieved by the war, opposed to each other. This will be a highly melodramatic situation. Johnson is a firstrate representative Democrat, and Grant is a pretty good representative Republican. Those who were in favor of the war for the preservation of the Union can scarcely fail to vote for Grant, while those who think that the war was a mistake, and that the abolition of slavery is a calamity, will of course go for Andy. With Grant and Johnson as the candidates of the respective parties we shall have a fair chance of such a verdict as will reveal the real sentiments of the people.

George H. Pendleton on the stump denounces the National Banks, and professes to favor taxing them prodigiously. The same Geo. H. Pendleton off the stump is a stockholder in the National Bank and one of its directors, and very emphatically refuses to pay any taxes on his stock. Herein George, who wants to be President, demonstrates his absolute fitness to be a candidate of the Copperheads. Like all the scamps, he professes to be one thing but takes especial care to practice the exact opposite.

The Louisville Journal says the President's last letter "reduces Grant to a grease spot and wipes him out with the Cabinet." This is very good, at least as regards the Cabinet. They are either grease-wipers or nose-wipers for Johnson as best suits his whims.

True Democrats in the U. S. Senate and the House of Representatives.

[From the Philadelphia Press.]

At a time when the old rebel leaders are all taking shelter in the Democratic church, it is interesting to study the honored names, identified with the Democratic party in its purest days, now classed among the trusted leaders of the Republican party. There is a large number in the House of Representatives, prominent among whom are Logan and Cook of Illinois, Butler and Boutwell of Massachusetts, Francis Thomas of Maryland, Coburn of Indiana, Poland of Vermont, Cake, Kelly, Morehead, Mercur, and Benfield of Pennsylvania, but the proportion of Democrats in the Senate is still more indicative of the hundreds of thousands of Democrats everywhere acting with the great Radical party. In that body we see men who were, not long ago, the teachers and chieftains of the Democracy. SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 21, 1868.

The 'Time Honored Principles

After protracted [illegible] the Democratic State Convention on the second day, agreed upon a platform. They could make no progress until they got a right start, their troubles being wholly owing to the [illegible] their first attempts they [illegible] the time honored principles. But at last they started with a recognition of these principles and the remainder of the job was easy. We are therefore gratified to find that the plan which we suggested on the morning the Convention opened, has been substantially followed. True the Convention in declaring for the time honored principles did not specify as minutely as we suggested, but the general terms of the first resolution are sufficient to include everything we mentioned and much more besides. Happily the record of the party is clear and consistent on this point, so there can be no doubt of the meaning of the introductory resolution.

In "renewing their pledge of adherence and unswerving fidelity to the time honored principles of the Democratic party," the Convention have therefore endorsed the resolutions of '98 and all the dogmas which have grown out of them. They have declared, as they declared in 1860, that the Government has no constitutional power to prevent or resist the secession of a State. They have reaffirmed the doctrine of Buchanan that "no power is delegated to any department of the Government to coerce into submission a State which has withdrawn from the Union." They have declared anew their opposition to the principles on which the war for the preservation of the Union was conducted. The first resolution is simply a reaffirmance of the position which their party has held from the time at which it plunged the nation into civil strife and left it a wreck to be saved by bolder and more patriotic hands. The time honored principles to which the party has again pledged its adherence, are the principles which led the South into rebellion, and which caused the Democratic party of the North to bitterly oppose every measure for quelling the insurrection. The first resolution of this platform therefore raises the very [illegible] which was before the country from 1861 to 1865. The resolves that follow, in favor of maintaining the integrity of the Union, have no meaning at all. For it has been fully demonstrated that the time honored principles' are utterly at variance with sound Union doctrines. There is no one who does not know that the Democratic party during the rebellion was not a Union party. It occasionally passed feeble resolves in favor of the Union as it has done on this occasion, but its whole policy was inimical to every principle by which the Union could be preserved. So now in declaring again for its old dogmas it menaces again the peace and perpetuity of the Union. If such [illegible] are to prevail, there will be no security whatever for the unity and repose of the country. Shall we, who have once witnessed the fruits of the so called time honored principles doubt that the same tree, if suffered to grow anew, will again produce fruit after its deadly kind?

The platform entirely ignores the great events which have transpired since 1860. Its makers are anxious to forget that there has been a gigantic rebellion, out of which great questions have grown that must be settled with a view to the present and future condition of the country. Democrats are retrogradists. Is it safe to trust the country to those who proclaim as their intention of going back to where they stood before and during the war? Observe the animus of the party as it manifests itself in the [illegible], "servile races." These words are an invective against those who abolished slavery and an expression of regret that that measure has [illegible]. There are no "servile races" in this country, and soon there will be none in any [illegible] of the world. There is no such idea at this day even in despotic Russia, as that which has thus found expression in this "Democratic" Convention. In this age of the world, such words are not fit to be uttered in any civilized country. It is the glory of progressive civilization that every man, however weak or humble he may be, [illegible] in his freedom, that no man has dominion over another, and that no man shall be in subjection to his fellow man. Servile races [illegible]! Thanks to the nation's sense of justice, we have no servile races. But perhaps this "Democratic" platform means to designate by this term all laboring classes. This interpretation is the only reasonable one, since the word "servile" will not apply to the colored race in any sense in which it will not apply to all people who must live by their labor.

Snubbed and Squelched

Beriah of the "organ" has been for a long time setting up great claims to be considered a man of weight and importance in his party. But the [illegible] in the Democratic Convention was a [illegible] blow to his vanity. In fact, he was humiliated and completely squelched and is no doubt several cubits less in stature (in his own estimation) than he was when he undertook to play a controlling part in the Convention. On the first day he was appointed a member of the Committee on Resolutions. Deeming himself much wiser than a majority of the Committee, he refused to acquiesce in their report, and read a minority report to the Convention. The Committee was discharged and a new one appointed, who reported a [illegible] of resolutions substantially, if not exactly the same as that presented by the majority of the former Committee, and ignored poor Beriah and his report entirely. This was a pretty heavy "lick back," but he was doomed to still further punishment. Being elected a delegate, with several others to the Democratic National Convention, a motion was made to instruct for Pendleton as the first choice of the party in Oregon for President. Beriah protested. He didn't want to be trammeled. He deprecated any instructions of a peremptory nature and begged the Convention not to persist in instructing the delegates. But Ben Hayden would have no nonsense and plumply told begging Beriah that they were ready to receive his resignation. By this turn in affairs no course was left Beriah but to offer to resign which he did, hoping no doubt that the Convention would not accept his resignation. But the Convention did accept it at once and unanimously and Beriah was, as Micawber would say, "in short floored." Hitherto he has supposed that the management of the whole affairs of the Democratic party rested in his hands, but it is supposed that he has now discovered his mistake. He might perhaps manage a precinct in the backwoods of Wisconsin, but he has found out that he is not able to control his party in Oregon. No one could be more sharply snubbed or utterly squelched than poor Beriah has been. He has discovered at last what his actual standing in his party is and what his wise counsels are worth in shaping its policy.

The Boston Journal says of Gov. Woods' speech at Manchester, New Hampshire on the 26th February: "Gov. Woods' address throughout was one of great power and eloquence and gives him a high rank among the ablest [illegible] now before the people of New Hampshire. The enthusiasm of the audience was of the wildest character and the speaker was frequently interrupted by rounds of cheers. When the meeting closed hundreds immediately rushed on to the stage to shake hands with His Excellency, and the assembly was soon changed into an informal reception party."

WASHINGTON, March 19.—In the House [illegible] bills were introduced. The Senate [illegible] Boutwell [illegible] Boutwell from the Judiciary Committee reported [illegible] relating to the Supreme Court with amendments. The bill passed with [illegible] in case of the removal [illegible] Justice of the Supreme Court the duties [illegible] shall devolve upon the Associate Justice of the [illegible] commission until the vacancy is filled.

The House then proceeded to the consideration of the bill continuing the Freedmen's Bureau. In the course of the debate Ward mentioned certain charges which had been made against Gen. Howard. [illegible] as false and slanderous. The bill finally passed [illegible] 37.

The House then proceeded to dispose of certain amendments reported from the Committee of the Whole relating to sundry civil expenses in the Appropriation bill. The amendments were discussed seriatim. One was adopted declaring that revenue cutters on the lakes be laid up in ordinary. All cutters on the Atlantic coast not actually needed for constant service shall be withdrawn from commission.

Without disposing of all the amendments the House adjourned.

In the Senate, Grimes from the committee of conference on the [illegible] Pension bill reported that they were unable to agree on the provision [illegible] interest on pensions to [illegible] The Senate insisted and a new committee was appointed. The Senate took up as the regular order the bill to repeal the tax on certain manufactures. Several amendments were offered and rejected, including one reducing the tax on distilled spirits to one dollar. The bill finally passed 36 to 3.

The Alaska Purchase

CHICAGO, March 20.—The action of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs in postponing the consideration of the Alaska appropriation excites considerable comment. By the terms of the treaty the purchase money is required to be paid at the Treasury in Washington within 10 months after the ratification. The ratifications were exchanged on the twentieth of June last and the ten months expires April 20th, long before the committee propose to even consider the matter. All efforts to induce the committee to reconsider its action failed. A Times special says one member declares that they want the thing to go by default so as to give Secretary Seward a slap in the face.

A Republican special says it is the intention of the Reconstruction Committee to press the passage of the Alabama bill to-day.

Sensation Report from the New York Herald

NEW YORK, March 20.—A Herald special says a caucus of Radicals has been held to consult on the subject of a Cabinet for Mr. Wade. The following is the programme: Secretary of State, Henry Wilson of Massachusetts; Pomeroy of Kansas, Secretary of the Treasury; Zach Chandler of Michigan, Secretary of the Interior; Wm. D. Kelley of Pennsylvania, [illegible] Secretary of War, E. M. Stanton; Secretary of the Navy, Chas. D. Drake of Missouri; Postmaster General, [illegible] Farnsworth of Illinois; Attorney General, Geo. F. Edmunds of Vermont, or Matt Carpenter of Wisconsin.

A Times dispatch says Gen. Halleck will probably be ordered to [illegible] Hancock in New Orleans.

Butler's article of impeachment will probably be abandoned by the managers of the President's trial.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

LONDON, March 19.—A trifle from Annesley bay to the 6th give a report from the advance post of the British forces stating that Gen. Napier was about to make a dash on Magdala to bring [illegible] the captives.

In the House of Commons last evening Hunt, Chancellor of Exchequer, promised the appearance of the budget on the 16th of April.

During the debate on the Irish question Lord Mayo said the offer of pardon to Johnson, who is accused of participating in the [illegible] was [illegible] held out to Sullivan and Pigott, the Dublin editors, for the reason that their cases were widely different.

Capt. Mackey recently tried at Cork on charge of murder and acquitted to-day, was put on trial on charge of treason and felony.

LISBON, March 19.—The mail steamer from Rio has arrived.

The news from the seat of war is unimportant. The allies had not yet attacked the Paraguayan fortifications at Humaita. Strong efforts were being made to secure the removal of Marquis Caxias, the Brazilian Commander-in-Chief, but the Emperor emphatically refuses to remove him.

A revolt had broken out at Montevideo and threatened to become formidable. It has been effectually suppressed.

PARIS, March 19—evening.—The much looked for Imperial pamphlet appeared to-day. The writer after giving a lengthy history of popular votes in France proves therefrom that the French Constitution is based upon the will of the people. He then goes on to review the course of the Emperor toward the people and contends that in the decrees of 1860 and 1867 wherein certain liberal reforms were guaranteed them the Emperor manifests that he seeks to adopt a covenant to progress and liberty.

LONDON, March 19.—In the House of Commons to-night Earl Mayo presented a Government bill for reform in the representation of Ireland in the House of Commons. There is to be no alteration in county franchise but in boroughs the rights of voting is to be given to all five pound householders instead of ten pounds as at present. No action was taken on the measure.

VIENNA, March 19.—To-day, an amendment was made by the Ministry that the project for the authorization of civil marriages ought to pass in spite of the Concordat. While they regretted the ill will of the Pope the Ministry considered such an enactment indispensable to the well being of society and should press its adoption.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH

SAN FRANCISCO, March 20.—About 1 o'clock P. M. to-day Robertson's patent vessel, intended to be propelled by the waves alone, started from Meiggs' Wharf on a trial trip. There are three boats attached to each other and the center one has side wheels like an ordinary steamer which are calculated to move by the action of the waves. A strong ebb tide was running at the time and the boats swung around broad side to the current and were swept rapidly in the direction of the Golden Gate. When they got opposite Point San Jose a fog nearly obscured them. The inventor had signified his intention of going outside the Heads, and it is understood that he claims the craft will work best in a rough sea, the rougher the better. The return of the party is looked for with much interest.

The revenue officers have discovered a new smuggling device. Large quantities of piles are shipped from Puget Sound to this port and the smuggling has been done by boring large holes through the piles filling them with silks, opium, cigars, etc., and then plugging the hole.

THE DEMOCRATIC FEUD—VALLANDIGHAM'S REPLY TO THE NEW YORK "WORLD."—The World is a so called "Democratic" newspaper published in New York city. Its editor is one Manton Marble; its proprietors are S. L. M. Barlow and sundry other wealthy gentlemen of venal Democracy. The World was originally created in something over six days as a religious newspaper, and still retains faint traces of its origin. Its old red sandstones was Puritan piety; its secondary formation was shoddy and army contracts, especially straw hats and summer clothing for the soldiers in mid winter; its tertiary after this wise: As a religious journal it failed; its contracts with Congress exploded; as an intensely loyal organ it could not compete with the Tribune, the Times, the Herald and half a score of others. Yet something must be done and Marble demanded of Mayor Opdyke material aid, money to carry it on; saying, Mr. Opdyke testified under oath that he preferred greatly to remain a Republican as he was in principle, but that if the party did not furnish him means he would sell out to the Democrats. And he did—office, type, presses, fixtures and himself, good will he had none to sell. Since that time (1862 3) he has "hung upon the verge" of the Democratic party, ignoring its principles, undermining its organization, and assailing its public men according to the order of [illegible] purchasers and owners. The World has no circulation in Central and Southern Ohio and very little in any part of the State. The Democracy of Ohio have never had any sympathy with it or its [illegible] or its stealing in its politics, and will hereafter have still less.

A State Senator will be elected in Marion county to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Hon. J. C. Cartwright.

Flattering Extracts

In a speech delivered at Louisville, Ky., before the last Presidential election, Andrew Johnson said:

"The pseudo Democratic party is the rebel party of the United States, composed in major part of the rebels and lurking traitors in our midst who are now engaged in the attempt to overthrow [illegible] as traitors [illegible] They [illegible] Jeff. Davis [illegible] [illegible] States."

Such are the [illegible] of the "pseudo Democratic party." How can they throw [illegible] than hold the author in honorable and grateful recollection? It has been some time since Johnson was worth [illegible] giving expression to sentiments of this kind. The last [illegible] was when [illegible] the [illegible] Convention was held in 1866. He told Raymond, who was lieutenant in getting [illegible] that [illegible] was very anxious that the Convention should not accrue to the benefit of the Democratic party. He knew that party thoroughly, [illegible] had been disloyal to the country while engaged in war and did not deserve the confidence of the people. These flattering remarks should not be forgotten by the Democracy. Nor is there much probability that they will be.

Aid for Railroads

The Democratic Convention resolves that "Congress shall make liberal grants of aid to construct railroads in this State." Is Government aid for internal improvements one of the "time honored principles of the Democratic party"? If we remember rightly there are some [illegible] traits [illegible] the effect that this was one of the abominable heresies of the old Whig organization. But the Democratic party has a recent record on this railroad business which it may be well to recall in these times of sham and humbug. By reference to the Congressional Globe, part 3, 2d session, 37th Congress, page 1[illegible], it will be seen that when the bill for granting aid to construct the Union Pacific Railroad came to a vote in the House, the ayes were 79, all Republicans, and the noes 49, all Democrats with four exceptions. This is the way the Democratic party will treat all propositions for aid to railroads. Measures of this kind are in direct opposition to their traditionary policy.

"DEMOCRATIC" LITERATURE.—The New York Day Book announces that it is about to commence the publication of a story suited to the tastes of Democratic readers entitled "The Confederate Flag on the Ocean." It says:

Our readers—and that means the great five millions of Democrats North, South, East and West—have now an opportunity to enjoy a pure unadulterated Circassian story without the least [illegible] of the nigger or of even that dirtier [illegible] New England Puritanism in its pages. It is a thrilling, completely absorbing and delightfully exciting tale. After reading it its pictures haunt the imagination like a brilliant startling dream.

We earnestly advise the admirers of the [illegible] Cause in Oregon to stop the La Crosse Democrat and subscribe for the Day Book at once.

TRUE MERIT APPRECIATED.—BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES have been before the public many years. Each year finds the Troches in some new distant locality, in various parts of the world. Being an article of true merit, when once used the value of the Troches is appreciated, and they are kept always at hand to be used as occasion requires. For Coughs, Colds and Throat Diseases the Troches have proved their efficacy.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF IDAHO—BOISE CITY, I. T.—Organized March 11th 1867 (with circulation) under Act of Congress approved June 3d 1864. Authorized capital $500 000. Paid up capital $100 000. B. M. Duffell, President; C. W. Moore, Cashier. Collections of Notes and Accounts on the principal places of Idaho Territory promptly attended to. Exchange for Coin or Currency on this Bank can be purchased of Ladd & Tilton, Portland, Oregon.

THE STEAMER JOHN L. STEPHENS not [illegible] but has arrived at Portland and brought to KOHN & FISHEL, the largest and best assortment of Gentlemen's Spring and Summer Suits, the latest style and of the best material that has been offered in this city for years. The Ladies have not been forgotten. They will find by an inspection of the stock just arrived that their wants have been anticipated by a selection of dry goods, the equal of which is not often presented here.

Buchtel's Photograph Gallery is the only establishment in Oregon that is thoroughly prepared to do all the different styles of work in the art. Photographs from card to life size. The new cabinet cards, &c., &c. Small pictures enlarged (retouched in India ink—painted in water-colors or oil by Mrs. S. J. Rumsey. Pictures that are failing can be reproduced in this way. All negatives taken in this gallery will be carefully preserved and additional copies had. I have now on hand a very large collection of negatives the names of which are recorded alphabetically in a book for that purpose that can be seen in the reception room.

COOS COUNTY.—The Salem Record has received some [illegible] information from Mr. Lowe, concerning the [illegible] and prosperity of Coos county, which we transfer to our columns:

Two coal banks are in successful operation; so much that nine vessels were loading at one time for San [illegible]. Three steam saw mills of great capacity are at work doing an immense business. Three shipyards are building vessels for home trade and for ocean trade. [illegible] builds sea-going vessels to carry lumber. They [illegible] from 100 to 300 tons burden. [illegible] has a large steam tug, drawing nine feet, [illegible] ready to run. A great many persons are finding employment at good wages. Money is abundant and everybody seems to have some. [illegible] Coquille river, improvement is the order of the day. [illegible] saw mill, to run by water power, is building, [illegible] soon be ready to run. It is to be able to saw sixty feet long, for the purpose of cutting good plank [illegible] out of the superior white cedar found so [illegible] thereabouts, which is the most valuable [illegible] lumber now sent to San Francisco, the best of it [illegible] $30 per M. [illegible] coal mine is being opened on the Coquille. Fine [illegible] exist there, and will be a source of great profit. [illegible] is fast settling up, and promises to be a valuable [illegible] of our State. [illegible] million feet of lumber is said to have been [illegible] from Coos bay to San Francisco during the year. Also, over six thousand tons of coal were shipped. [illegible] of vessels built is about 500 tons, and it is [illegible] that the business of mining coal and manufacturing [illegible], as also that of ship building, will be [illegible] more extensively the present year. [illegible] amount of agricultural land lies along the bay, [illegible] the county, which will also add to the [illegible] value and prosperity of the county.

[illegible] IRISH.—We clip the subjoined items from [illegible] The Hibernian Society of this city got up [illegible] celebration of their essentially Irish anniversary, which, considering the haste with which arrangements had to be made, was extremely creditable. [illegible] Band headed the procession in its march [illegible], discoursing "St. Patrick's Day," and other airs. Arriving at Metropolis Hall, ample [illegible] done to a collation which awaited them, after [illegible] circuit of the garrison was performed, the Society receiving marked courtesies from both officers and [illegible] returning to the Hall, the orator of the day, [illegible] O'Keane, plead indisposition; an able substitute [illegible] however, in the Rev. Father Mans, who [illegible] an invitation to read the celebrated oration delivered in Portland, on St. Patrick's Day, three years ago, [illegible] J. McCormick, Esq. A ball was given in the [illegible] Oro Fino Hall, which passed off very pleasantly. [illegible] whole, the affair reflects credit on the Society [illegible] auspices it was gotten up......Rev. Dr. [illegible] of the Christian church, delivered a series of [illegible] in the district school house in this place, [illegible] Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of this [illegible] of the tricks by which the so-called [illegible] upon the credulous. The attendance [illegible] was quite numerous, and much satisfaction [illegible] at the manner in which the Dr. exposed [illegible] spiritualistic fallacies......Our active and vigilant [illegible] Marshal, H. H. Leonard, arrested and lodged [illegible] Thursday afternoon, a member of the Cavalry [illegible], who was endeavoring to capture [illegible]......The Episcopal Sewing Society contemplate to [illegible] fair at Oro Fino Hall, in this city, to commence [illegible] April 1st, lasting two days.

[illegible] IN SAN FRANCISCO.—In looking over the [illegible] reports of the San Francisco papers, we find [illegible] places they all speak of the fact that [illegible] are numerous buyers in the market from [illegible] and it is conceded that their presence has greater [illegible] in various lines of goods than all other [illegible] combined. For instance: The Commercial [illegible] of March 10th, says, in one place, "almost our [illegible] at the moment is Oregon." In another place, [illegible] of dry goods, clothing, etc., it says, "there is [illegible] little trade in progress, though an increased [illegible] Oregon is observable." As to hardware, it [illegible] is at present but slight trade in progress, [illegible] there is an increased inquiry observable, as the [illegible] presence of a number of Oregon buyers in [illegible] are only a few of many similar allusions to [illegible] purchasers in the market, to be found in all [illegible] but they are sufficient to show that the trade [illegible] Oregon with the Pacific metropolis, are becoming [illegible] importance, and that our demands [illegible] visibly affect the state of her markets.

[illegible] New York paper, of February 20th, gives [illegible] the condition of the wool market in that [illegible] the difference between Oregon and California [illegible]:

[illegible] better demand from manufacturers and dealers [illegible] descriptions of domestic, and prices, though [illegible] higher, are more steadily held. The high [illegible] have the preference. The stocks of these [illegible] are fair. Foreign is quiet, in consequence of [illegible] difference between the views of buyers and [illegible] sales are 320,000 lbs fleeces at 40@48c, in[illegible] at 40c; Oregon combings at 41c; Michigan [illegible]@47½c; State and Pennsylvania at 45@ [illegible] Pennsylvania at 48@58c; fine Nulls on [illegible] 630 bales pulled, mostly super, at 37½ [illegible] lbs Texas at 21@28c for low to good; [illegible] California at 21½c for burry; 22@25½c for [illegible]; 25½@34c for medium to fine Spring; [illegible] 286 bales Cordova and Santiago, and 60 [illegible] on private terms.

[illegible] following were the arrivals of produce [illegible] steamer Wenat, from Oregon City, 242 [illegible], 10 hf bbls dried apples, 2 boxes eggs, 29 [illegible], 60 cans lard, 35 boxes apples, and 31 [illegible] Alert, from Oregon City, 30 boxes apples, [illegible] 25 gunnies and 47 cases bacon, 63 hf bbls [illegible] lard, 12 hf bbls dried apples, 300 bags wheat, [illegible] from to Oregon Iron Works, and 53 hf bbls [illegible] Per Alert, 704 boxes apples, 601 bags wheat, [illegible] flour, 45 hf bbls dried apples, 2 gunnies [illegible] woolen goods, 14 boxes eggs, 165 sacks [illegible].

[illegible] a few days the Willamette river has been [illegible] the steamboatmen say the rise comes from the [illegible]. There has been but one considerable rise [illegible] during the whole of the last winter, and that [illegible] suddenly. Persons who have been engaged [illegible] for many years, say that they have never [illegible] during which the river was so continuously [illegible] a stage. A good part of the time, during [illegible] the water was too low for comfortable steamboating.

[illegible] VACATION.—Yesterday Judge Mar[illegible] [illegible] order to be entered, in the matter of the [illegible] David Cox, deceased, George A. Steele, administrator, [illegible] said administrator to pay over to the [illegible] the estate, $30 per month for the support of [illegible] child. An order was also entered, setting [illegible] to the widow the personal property of the [illegible] from execution, and authorizing the sale of [illegible] exempt from execution.

[illegible] BEER.—The proprietors of the East Portland [illegible] Ludwig & Weiser—have done our [illegible] times lately by donating to them kegs [illegible] lager beer," of a very superior quality. The [illegible] thanks to the generous brewers, and in [illegible] that if all their lager is as good as that left [illegible] will soon need two or three breweries [illegible] the demand for their beverage.

[illegible] We are pleased to learn that our friend [illegible] has purchased the interest of E. M. [illegible] the firm of Ascheim & Co., importers and [illegible] liquors, etc., at No. 26 Front street. [illegible] for years, well known here, as a young [illegible] abilities and a very pleasant [illegible]. We wish him success.

[illegible] IN BOSTON.—Messrs. Savier & Co., who [illegible] shipped Imperial flour to Boston, re[illegible] by the last mail that their consignment sold [illegible] bbl.,—the highest price in that market. The [illegible] a very decided opinion as to its superiority [illegible] any other brand from this coast.

[illegible] LECTURE.—The spiritualists of this city [illegible] an invitation to Mr. Cleaveland of Oswego, [illegible] Pever, to deliver a lecture in this city, and [illegible] accepted. The lecture will occur at Oro Fino [illegible] evening at half-past seven o'clock; ad[illegible].

[illegible] THIS EVENING.—It is hoped that no one interested [illegible] in the success of the Portland Library, will forget [illegible] Smith, Esq., will lecture to-night, at Oro Fino [illegible] the subject, "A Tour in Europe." The proceeds [illegible] go to the benefit of the Library.

PREPARATIONS.—The Washington Base Ball Club [illegible], has already advertised that it will give a [illegible] Ball at Oro Fino Hall, Vancouver, on Friday [illegible] May 1st. Tickets, $5 each, in currency, may [illegible] H. J. McCormick's in this city.

[illegible] FROM CLATSOP.—In our published proceedings [illegible] county Union Convention, it does not appear [illegible] was elected delegate to the Union State Convention. [illegible] Mr. H. B. Parker was the delegate chosen, as [illegible] through a private source.

[illegible] FOR PORTLAND.—The steamer Ajax brought up [illegible] tons [illegible] merchandise, mostly to consignees [illegible]. The greater portion of this freight consists [illegible] goods needed at once in this market.

RIVER STEAMER.—The steamer Active will be dis[illegible] up the river this morning, and will probably go [illegible] Harrisburg.

[illegible] MASTER'S SALE.—There will be a sale at Fort [illegible] to-day, of a lot of condemned Quartermaster's [illegible].

[illegible] SAIL.—The steamship Ajax will sail for San Francisco [illegible] Tuesday or Wednesday next—not sooner.

[illegible]—We are in receipt of a bundle of pictorials [illegible]. Plenty more left.

[illegible] AND PORTENTS.—From the earliest times there [illegible] been in many minds a firm belief in supernatural [illegible]. If there is anything like skepticism remaining [illegible] this community regarding the ability of Barman Bros. [illegible] sell the best goods at the lowest prices, it will be re[illegible] by calling at their store, at the corner of Front [illegible] and Morrison streets, where a large new stock of every [illegible] description of Clothing and Furnishing Goods, received [illegible] by the steamer John L. Stephens, will be found.

[illegible] HOME AGAIN.—Mr. C. H. Meussdorffer, [illegible] hatter of this upper coast, returned home by [illegible] Ajax with a large and splendid selection of the latest [illegible] of hats and caps suitable to the spring season, [illegible] will be opened to-day. Our advice to all candidates, [illegible] "or any other man," is to call on Meussdorffer at [illegible] procure a fashionable tile. No man who stays [illegible] from Meussdorffer's and continues to wear a shocking [illegible] hat, need expect to succeed in politics or business.

TERPSICHOREAN CLUB.—Members of this Club will meet at their Hall this evening, at 7 o'clock. All members are requested to attend punctually, as business of importance will be before the Club.

The Pain Killer Abroad.

The following correspondence will show something of the estimation in which Perry Davis' Pain Killer is held on the shores of the Mediterranean. It is not surprising that a medicine that receives such testimonials as this from abroad, should find well sustained and increasing appreciation at home.

U. S. CONSULATE, Tunis, Dec. 27, 1866.

To the Proprietors of Davis' Pain Killer, Providence, R. I.—Gentlemen:—The enclosed has just been received from my friend Tulin, late Consul General of Norway and Sweden and of Prussia in this place. No comment is needed. Truly yours, AMOS PERRY.

GENOA, December 16, 1865.

Dear Sir:—Accept thanks for this third supply of Davis' "Pain Killer." This medicine has often relieved me of serious indisposition, and I would not on any account consent to be without it both for myself and my family.

I have recommended it to my late colleagues and friends in Tunis and Genoa, and at my request one of the largest druggists in this city has sent an order to New York to meet the demand in this place.

Yours truly, G. A. TULIN,
Ex-Consul Gen'l of Sweden, Norway & Prussia in Tunis.
Hon. Amos Perry, Consul General, Tunis. fe20daw1m

PATHFINDER!

THIS NOTED HORSE, RECENTLY IMported from New Hampshire, is twelve years old, sixteen hands high, and when in working order weighs Eleven Hundred Pounds. He is of a deep brown color, and was sired by the and claimed by Mr. Morrill to be one of the Best Horses ever begotten by that celebrated Trotter.

PATHFINDER HAS TROTTED A MILE IN PUBLIC IN TWO MINUTES AND THIRTY-SIX SECONDS, and in private has done better by four seconds. He is undoubtedly, for his training,

THE FASTEST STALLION IN NEW ENGLAND!

He possesses the rare faculty of imparting to his stock all the best qualities of the sire, including both size and speed. Few if any of his colts that have arrived at the age of five years can be bought for a less sum than Five Hundred, and some are held as high as Fifteen Hundred Dollars, all being noted for their speed and endurance.

THE PATHFINDER will stand the present season at S. DURBIN'S STABLE, SALEM, April 1st, and at JEFFERSON and ALBANY.

TERMS—$45 (GOLD COIN) FOR THE SEASON.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commends here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.
Each package bears the signature of G. VENARD.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!
A Pure and Powerful Tonic,
Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.
PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.
Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fevers; Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water; invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels;
Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.
REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.
Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.

As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

AMERICAN DOUBLE TURBINE

THESE WHEELS, UNEQUALED AND UNRIVALLED in the United States or the world have been fully tested on this coast many being in use at this date driving all kinds of machinery Saw Mills, Flour Mills Quartz Mills, Woolen Factories &c, &c

The following is from the Springfield Republic

Trial of Water Wheels.

Messrs Jonathan Child and John A McCreight, who are about establishing mills and factories at Harper's Ferry Va, wished to procure water wheels, and desiring to make a choice of Springfield Wheels procured a trial between the Leffel Double Turbine and the Welch and Burns Wheel The following report of the Committee shows the result of the trial

SPRINGFIELD, O, Oct 11, 1867

This is to certify, that on the 9th and 10th days of October, 1867 I, in company with Mr Staley, Civil Engineer of Mechanicsburg carefully measured the amount of water used in the test between the 10 inch Leffel Turbine and the 10 inch Welch & Burns water wheels made by Bechtle Blakeney & Baker made at Weimer's mill, near West Milton Miami Co O, The contract requiring the tests to be made with ½ gates and ¾ gates with the same amount of water for each wheel The amount of grinding was superintended by Mr Charles Morgan who will report the results

The amount of water used in the tests, as measured by myself and Mr Staley, is as follows

	C ft per min
At ½ gate the Leffel Wheel used	88 224
Welch & Burns used	88 224
At ¾ gate the Leffel Wheel used	117 528
Welch & Burns used	117 528

The grinding was continued for one hour each test
WILLIAM BROWN
Civil Engineer
S S STALEY

Having been chosen by both parties to determine the amount of grain ground by each of the above mentioned wheels the result was as follows

The Leffel Wheel at ½ gate ground	256 lbs
The Welch & Burns at ½ gate ground	56½ lbs
The Leffel Wheel at ¾ gate ground	411½ lbs
The Welch & Burns at ¾ gate ground	192 lbs

Medical.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea Gleet, Stricture Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness Impotency etc Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence from virus absorbed into the system Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents guardians friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life destroying maladies see that they are saved for and cured before it be too late Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon a physician who has made private diseases his specialty for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from European and other places But be ever careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self abuse This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances a disposition to shun society loss of memory hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face furred tongue fetid breath, coughs consumption night sweats monomania and frequent insanity If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case, symptoms length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who with bogus sworn to certificates dupe the unwary Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades Some are tinsmiths shoemakers newspaper carriers intelligence office keepers, etc Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it but you will find their former occupations in it Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863 The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure
